Located near the banks of the Lachlan River in the Central West district of NSW, William Beech Gardens is a living community for 68 seniors who require residential care at all levels. Residents live in a mixture of single and twin occupancy rooms, most with en-suite bathrooms, and share community rooms for planned daily activities, socials and dining. Meals are prepared on individual dietary needs. Outdoors, there are six courtyards with seating and landscaped gardens. All residential aged care services provide assistance with daily activities and we aim to assist all residents maintain as much independence as possible. Specialist dementia care accommodation gives residents the best quality of life in a safe and supporting environment. A personalised activities program is also available to all residents.
